Hi BX,

Been a while :) Those old MySatan days are gone. Things here are better now, thank you. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Looks like both of us have come a long way since MySatan. I miss those days actually. Things were fun back then. Time passes by so fast and before you know it you've changed and so has life.

Enclosed are BG & MS. You are free to pass them out to ONA people you know and trust. You'll see they are much. They are private autobiographies of the two founders of the ONA, which is why it's not found online.

[REDACTED] wrote BG a couple years ago. There are no intentions behind it. He wrote us [ONA] an underground autobiography which shares the missing details he left out in his public autobiography. You'll see the details has to do with the ONA. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] old guards, and myself have been talking since last year about the future of the ONA. We fear that if [REDACTED] remains a part of the ONA, it may die with [REDACTED], if ONA is too dependent on [REDACTED] or if ONA becomes a personality cult. [REDACTED]

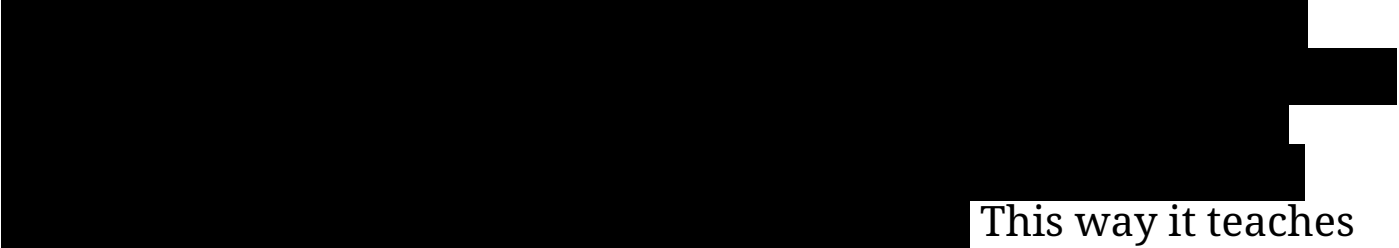

[REDACTED] Because of all this BG has to be kept offline and private.

MS is [REDACTED] autobiography. The reasoning behind why [REDACTED] wrote this was because I requested it. I asked the OG's for something private ONA people can pass around secretly. This was because I got tired of people like Blackwood & Venger coming out of nowhere and claiming to be some leader of the ONA. The idea was to have a private set of documents which comes from the actual founders of the ONA. These are given to known Old Guards [personal associates of █████]. Those OG's pass it to their cells and underlings like me. Then we pass it to the rest of the ONA people we know and meet. This way a chain link of association is created where all of us are in some way linked to █████ and █████. So this way, if another person comes and tries to be some leader of ONA any of us with MS or BG can ask them questions concerning the private information in MS & BG. If they can't answer any of our questions, it means 1) they don't have these documents, 2) they don't know any known or recognizable ONA associate, 3) they aren't connected to any of us, & 4) thus they have no rightful claim to something they aren't even properly connected with. So MS & BG are our security measures.

The main idea is to keep ONA Peer Based and leaderless. The idea or concept of a leader in the ONA dies with █████, who is also officially retired from ONA and has resigned or relinquished his old leadership post. Each ONA person and/or Nexion is independent, sovereign, and autonomous. We all just share a common "Myattian/ONA Culture," and choose to Associate with each other. Each cell is self governing. I hope at least ONA people are grown up enough to govern themselves and not need a leader. So because of how ONA is structured cellularly, there can be no such thing as a leader of an "ONA." Another thing we can use BG & MS for is to get rid of any people in and out of ONA who act like they are some high and mighty "authority figure." If such a person comes along and starts swinging his nuts acting like they are some authority on ONA we just ask them about info out of BG & MS. If they can't answer any questions, then they aren't even connected in any way to the two original founders to be saying anything or acting like an authority.

So those are BG and MS and what they are used for. Right now they are pretty useless, but in 10-30 years they will have many uses. They aren't really used to verify "membership" in ONA since Ryan and his Temple of THEM don't have either documents, and we all accept them as ONA. They just will help us keep wannabe leaders and wannabe authority figures out. Otherwise, they aren't anything special. █████

This way it teaches those of us with eyes to see, know that what is written and said in public - especially online - just can't be trusted, especially if it is about a person we may not have any real life connection to and knowledge of.

Like I said, you may pass them around to ONA people you know or will meet whom you trust. They aren't "secret," just private. The more ONA people have these the better the security measure will work. Talking about these two documents in public works too. Guess that's it. Keep up your great work with Dark Horse Klan! I think one thing I have learned over the years is that Passion and Commitment for what we do gives rise to success. I can honestly say that for 4 years I gave ONA all I had. I had a passion for it, and I stayed committed to it. After 4 years all that work, passion, and commitment [plus some social skills :)] all paid off. It's hard to believe that DM gave me the ONA. It's really nice of him. He was a Nazi for so long. He would have hated me if he knew me back then. 40 years later he gives his baby he's been working on for 40 years to some Asian girl of all people :) He's a sweet person. Not many people in public will ever know that. Stay committed and passionate for Dark Horse Klan. Sometimes it will feel as if you're just writing and talking to yourself. But just keep going. The more you rise above the common herd, the more they will hate you and talk smack about you and what you have going. It comes with the territory. Just ignore everybody and keep on trucking :) It'll pay off in Time. I promised DM I'd do what he did and write for ONA for 30 years. So I'll be around "here" for a long while :) Take Care.

iSS,
Chloe
