”Blood, blood, blood red blood.”

”He who is within me, is greater than me.” - H.B.

Sinister Regards Dear Czar,

This is my first real emergence into Blood Lord consciousness since I've been here. I am forever changed. Philosophically, physically, spiritually, on all levels. Being here a month I just began to sip from this ocean, but even that bit has been profound. I came out of my trance because I need to keep the TOB running (Maya?) I did some sinister japa on quartz mala beads I will send to Davcina. She is evolving greatly due to my absence. I use her longing for my return in sinister ways. She will be a good mistress. If she survives. I am near the rocky mountains, and your story did predict the death of my first mistress here. Sad to think about.

This form is great. I am thinking somewhere in the future either I or a TOB trained adept should take a Guru position and bring forth Kalki. Already the president of the Temple here talks about how this movement is a revolution and we must learn from other revolutionary forms./HARE KRISHNA!

I am now my opposite, I am my role, yet like you said in CI, we just have a deeper understanding. Celibacy has been hard, but study of tantric sublimation helps. I am becoming "Urdhua-reta" which means my sex drive goes in and up rather than down and out. A person who fully achieves this is called a "walking God on earth."

Prayer to Nrsimhadeva helped me enter Krishna mode sooner, but the Blood Lord is only made stronger by attack. When I first took this body I began to read banishings from old grimoires and the Necronomicon. Davcina was scared at my seemingly possessed demeanor. So I laughed and read banishings to scare the demons away. ha! Silly stuff. I then did some mutilation on Randall's body to further test her. She is better for it. It showed her it was no joke. Although strangely a few days later some angelic benevolent entities came and comforted her through me. Weird.

INSANE!

The Vampiric connections and nature of this Vaisnava is obvious. Krishna has given me the most ecstatic "rain of mercy" I've ever felt. Prabhupada is like an ideal TOVer. Serve the Undead with complete surrender and one raises up into Undeath themselves. Although in the TOV I never really see this happen. They just suck the membership dry. I loved your Radha drawings. Send more Vampiric drawings of Vaishnava entities if possible.

I read an ONA text talking about how Falcifer is an advanced Sinister Magickian who creates Vindex. Like in the Falcifer story. However, Falcifer does not control Vindex. Vindex has its own destiny. In rare cases Falcifer and Vindex are the same individual.

Ryan from Australi is writing some TOB mss and has begun to develop a cover for "Discipline..." Also a new member of the TOB is looking VERY promising. He is like you and I. Has ONA, TOV, and other experience. He is an ex-marine, ex-prisoner, a good public speaker, mass manipulator, magickian, etc. He has went through much self-induced shock. He is moving south and he has sinister pupils joining the S.C. group "Hedge of Avalon" to disrupt it. Praise Satan! You will like him. He agrees C.I., Vaisnava, etc. are all useful. Also, another member who previously did not like C.I. has finally affirmed its sinister glory. NOCTULIAN EMPIRE.

Well, Czar. I am beginning to miss beloved Krishna. It is time to read of his glories pastimes and sing praise.

HARE KRISHNA!

Bhakta BL<sub>333</sub> (TOB sigil inserted in text)

P.S. If you feel up to it, write some sorcery on the TOB's influence on Vaisnava. All great revolutions start as such. Its historical. The Dream must be sent into the aethers before being made flesh.

Best wishes comrade
Stay HARD

P.P.S. I would love to hear any of your glorious pastimes in the last month. How is Asatru?

P.P.P.S. - Falcifer and any other mss you need will be sent to you soon. I can still get them to you, so if you ever need one...

Write me: (address redacted, ISKCON temple of his residence at the time)

P.P.P.S. - About Vampiric Krishna drawings, a Prabhupada Vampiric image and/or a comic style manual showing the Vampiric transformation of a pure Bhakta would be of great use.

KRISHNA.
